COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

FRIDAY EVENING, 22ND SEPT. 1876.

YESTERDAY'S telegrams report both Piece Goods in Manchester and Cotton in Liverpool slightly better in tone, Reuter's remark being "steady," but in neither case has the change been more marked. In Liverpool the day's sales were 8,000 bales again, and the price of G. F. Ginned Dharwar is reduced ¼d. per lb., but practically the market is the same.

From New York, Wednesday's telegrams quote Mid. Uplands on the spot at 11¼ cents, a decline of ⅛, but December shipment is still given at 11¼ cents per lb. The Receipts at the U. S. ports to date show the following comparisons :—

	1876.	1875.	1874
Wednesday's Receipts.....	10,000	8,200	7,000
Five days' do.	41,000	39,500	29,000
Total since 1st September...	102,000	87,900	73,000

The London Produce Markets yesterday were without change of any kind. The weekly quotations for Metals indicate an advance of £1 per ton in Copper Braziers and a decline of 5s. per ton in Silesian Spelter, but are otherwise unchanged.

Enfaced Rouse Paper in London is quoted ¼ higher all round, Fours being now 83¾, Fours and-a-half 84, Fives-and-a-half 85¼. Consols are still at 95⅞. French Rentes 106¼.

The Bank of England return for the week ending on Wednesday evening shows a further increase in strength, the proportion of the Reserve to Liabilities having advanced from 62¼ to 63¼; the Reserve being greater by £125,000 and Bullion by a like amount, while Discounts are unaltered. The rate of discount on 6 months' sight Bank Bills is still quoted at 1½ to 1¾ per cent and there seems no prospect of any immediate improvement in the demand for money.

Bar Silver in London has advanced from 51 7/16d. to 51½d. per oz., the equivalent of the latter rate being 1s. 7 13/16d. per Rupee. Reuter confirms in the main the information respecting shipments of Silver to this side which we published yesterday. Yesterday's P. and O. Steamer from Southampton brings £150,000 for Bombay and £453,000 for Calcutta, £350,000 of the latter being on account of the German Government. We are led to believe that there is £150,000 in addition to the above shipped for China, which Reuter does not notice, and which, as we pointed out yesterday, is more than likely to find its way to India ultimately. Under ordinary circumstances this information might have been expected to exercise a depressing effect on STERLING EXCHANGE; but for some reason not apparent on the surface of things, unless it be the fact of business being closed in Calcutta, the market here to-day has been unquestionably firm, the banks having been more willing sellers than buyers, and rates must be quoted 1 16d. higher all round. We quote :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7¾d.	per Rupee.
Do 6 months' sight.....	1s. 8¼d.	,,
Credits 3 ,, ...	1s. 8 3-16d.	,,
Documents 3 ,, ...	1s. 8¼d.	,, (nom.).

On Calcutta there is nothing doing, business there being closed for the Doorga Pooja.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is quite nominal, no business having been transacted for some days past. We call Fours, Rs. 101 ; Fours-and-a-half, Rs. 101½ ; Fives-and-a-half, Rs. 104½.

Bar Silver is still in active request here and a small lot received by last mail changed hands yesterday at Rs. 107-10 3 and later again at Rs. 107 14 per 100 tolas. The demand, however, is believed to be mainly of a speculative character for Bars only and does not represent an actual scarcity of the Metal which would be met at once in rupees.

The SHARE MARKET continues dull and declining, our quotations showing a further general drop in Spinning and Weaving Companies of Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per share. Colaba Land Co.'s shares are Rs. 5 lower, other Companies are unchanged.

COTTON is in some slight demand for export and a few purchases are reported of Veravul at Rs. 157 to Rs. 162, and of Wudwan and Dhollera at Rs. 168 to Rs. 171 per candy half pressed, but these rates are too high as compared with Liverpool* to admit of any extent of business being done even if larger supplies of Cotton were available. There is still a steady enquiry for local consumption.

SEEDS meet an active demand both for ready and forward delivery ; very heavy contracts have been made for March-April delivery and there are still more buyers than sellers.

FREIGHTS are quiet at yesterday's figures, say, £1-12 6 to £1-15 for Cotton and £1-10 for Wheat by steamer to Liverpool.

PIECE GOODS are quiet and unchanged. From first hands we have not heard of a single transaction and the demand in the bazaar is also very slow.

CALCUTTA MONEY MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE "ENGLISHMAN," MONDAY EVENING.

THE value of money is fully maintained ; the Bank of Bengal has made no change in its official rate, and bazaar terms now assimilate to it, but there is no pressure, and the holiday arrangements are likely to be provided for without causing any derangement in the long continued easy condition of the money market.

Export trade is increasing, and likely further to widen after the Pujahs, but imports are still very dull, and supplies of piece-goods are being run out from England on a scale much beyond the present requirements of the Indian markets.

The public demand on the Bank of Bengal has slightly increased. The last statement gave a decrease of 14 lakhs in the private deposits, and an increase of 1 lakh in the loans, the discounts and credits being almost unchanged. The Government balances are unaltered, although the equivalent of £350,000 has been paid for Council bills. The investment account has declined 4 lakhs, and the cash balance 11 lakhs. The proportion of cash to liabilities now stands at 60 per cent.

The last tea sales brought from ½ to 1 anna advance, and another sale will take place before the holidays. Accounts from the gardens are still good, and they, at all events, are having an excellent season. Jute is being shipped freely, and the mills are working full time with advantageous results. Fine jute is scarce for the time of year, and prices are higher.

During the past month exports of gold from Bombay to Europe have been going on to a considerable extent, although not to the extent of the July shipments. That, however, must not be taken as any indication of a falling off in the supplies of gold available for shipment, but merely as the result of the rise in the gold value of silver, which took place during the month of August.

The highest price touched for gold in the Bombay bazaar during the month of July was about Rs. 21 per tolah, and the lowest point touched in August was about Rs. 18½ per tolah. It is therefore quite natural that shipments should latterly have fallen off, but should silver again fall to the July level, there is every reason to believe that immense hoards of gold will again come to light in quantity sufficient to give a fresh check to a decline in value of the inferior metal. Even at present prices there are considerable sums available, estimated at 10 to 12 lakhs of rupees, and any rise would increase those amounts. Following up the list of gold shipments made from Bombay by the P. and O. steamers, in the issue of this paper on the 15th August, the following transmissions have since been made :—

	Rs.
Nepaul, 11th August, Coin	1,11,204
Bars.....	4,46,000
	5,57,204
Surat, 18th August, Bars	2,27,000
Mirzapore, 25th August, Bars	3,07,000
Pera, 1st September, Coin	5,29,800
Bars.....	3,91,700
	9,21,500
Rs.....	20,12,704

Silver is nominally quoted at 51¾ in London, but the market is believed to be receiving no supplies at that rate. Last Wednesday's issue of Council bills, amounting to £350,000, produced the improved rate of 1-7/8, thus giving indications of a strong exchange market in London. The Money Market there continues quite easy, and the bullion in bank of England is again increasing.

The Durga Pujah holidays commence on Friday next and last until Tuesday, 3rd October, inclusive, during which period the Banks will be closed, and business altogether greatly suspended. Of late years, however, there has been an increasing disposition to work off and on, during these holidays, and this year is not likely to be an exception.

After to-morrow, the next English mail will be despatched from here on Friday, 29th September, and they will continue to go on Fridays thereafter during the fair season.

EXCHANGE.

Sterling has gone up again, and has a firm appearance ; more business has been doing, a good deal of it for forward delivery. Private paper has been more plentiful, but at the close the demand is overtaking the supply. Six months' sight Bank bills have been sold at from 1-7/8 up to 1-8, and even 1-8 1/16 has been given spasmodically ; demand drafts have ranged from 1-7/8 to 1-7/8, and a little telegraphic has been done at 1-7 5/8. The general rate for credit bills has been 1-8 1/8, but some sales were made also at 1-8/16. Document bills have gone from 1-8/4 to 1-8/4, again becoming saleable at 1-8 3/16. The following are to-day's closing rates :—

Bank telegraphic transfer.....	1-7/8 to 11/16
Bank bills, on demand	1-7 11/16 to ⅛
Do. 3 months' sight	1-7/8
Do. 6 months' sight	1-8
Credits and clean private paper, 6 months' sight	1-8 1/16 to ⅛
Document bills, 6 months' sight.....	1-8 3/16 to ⅛

France—Rates are higher ; three months' sight documents f. 2-12½ ; six months' sight, f. 2-14½.

Bombay.—Par is quoted for demand, and 99-4 for sixty days' sight.

China.—Unchanged, at 232.

STOCKS AND SHARES.

A good business has been done during the past week, and there are decided prospects of activity after the holidays.

Government Securities continue extremely flat, and business in them is very restricted. Speculation has entirely deserted this description of stock, and there has lately been very little demand for investment. Four per cents. have fluctuated between 1½ and 1¾ per cent. premium ; four-and-a-half per cents. have not been dealt in ; five-and-a-half per cents. after advancing to 4¼, have receded to 3¾ per cent. premium. Quotations are as under :—

4 per cents.....	101½ to ¾
4½ ,, ...	101¾
5½ ,, ...	103¾

Bank Shares are generally firm. Bengal's changing hands at 705, but National's have been in strong demand, owing to the favourable balance sheet just issued for the last half year, and their price has advanced to 118.

Tea Shares are still moving in the favourable direction, and the good ad-interim dividends, now being paid, are encouraging investment, and providing means for it. Jokai's are much wanted, and offers of 130,10 rupees advance, fail in bringing out sellers. Bisnauth's have also advanced, and business done at 420 ; Holta's have brought 112 to 114, Hoolungcoorie's 110 to 112, Sungoo River's 111, Tukver's 125,126 and 121, all showing strength. Central Cachar's are rather lower, at 156 ex-dividend ; Chandypore's steady, at 700 ; Debing's at 70, Dehra Doon's at 85, Durrung's at 82, Hoolmuree's at 135, Jeerie Ghat's at 77, and New Falloshi's at 80.

Spinning Mill Shares are still influenced by a good demand, but buyers confine themselves to a few favourite stocks. Bowreah Cotton have been dealt in, and are still asked for at 95, and Goosery has advanced to 216. Calcutta Jute have had strong buyers, carrying the price from 52 to 57 ; Howrah's are also in good request, bringing from 77 to 79, and now held for 80 ; Budge-Budge maintain last week's rate of 80.

Coal Shares are very quiet : Beerbhoom's have brought 94 for cash, and Raneegunge's 70 for time.

Miscellaneous Shares —No transactions are reported in India General Steam, and the price is nominally 700. Carew and Co. have brought 124, Calcutta Hydraulic Press 9, and Landing and Shipping 57.

THE editors of some of the Indian papers have, we see, sent home remonstrances addressed to the editors of the leading London papers against the false and scurilous remarks in the World about the manners and customs of English gentlemen in India. The Madras Mail publishes the names of the papers addressed by the editor of that paper. The World's article, however, makes a greater sensation here than it does at home.

THE Bishop of Madras, who is now acting Metropolitan, and is apparently likely to remain so for some time to come, will leave Ootacamund on the 10th of October, passing on to Bellary, Secunderabad, Mhow and Indore, reaching Jubbulpore on November 23rd, Agra December 20th, reaching Bombay January 24th and leaving again on the 27th, thence to Mangalore and Mysore, reaching Madras about the end of February, having thus no less than five months of incessant travelling.

THERE was a fracas on Monday last in the Cantonment Bazaar, Bangalore, between a lot of Mussulmans and the members of the Parsee Theatrical Company from Bombay, in which several people got severely hurt—one of the Parsees, it is said, had his arm broken by a blow. The cause of the row is not known for certain. Some say it was on account of some stage allusions to persons held sacred by Mahomedans, while others ascribe it to an attempt to rob the strong box of the company, but the latter seems hardly likely in broad noonday. The above particulars are given by a Bangalore correspondent of the Madras Times.

A BARODA correspondent informs us that recently the men and women of the Mahomedan creed there seemed to have been thrown into a ferment, for it would appear that in the columns of some Urdoo hebdomadal of this or the sister Presidency, a paragraph appeared notifying that the orthodox leaders of the creed have received letters from the wise men of Mecca containing certain predictions relative to the birth of Imam Mendhee (the supposed ha rbinger of the millennium) after twenty-two months. The visible signs of his birth are to be that for two consecutive months the days will be unrecognizable from the nights, a general holy war will take place throughout the world, and the present hostilities in Roum are said to be evidently one of the precursors of the Imam's birth.

IT may interest some of our readers to know that according to a letter in the Times signed "A. H. H.," the Cardinals are beginning to trouble themselves, and will probably soon be troubling Christendom, about the election of the next Pope. He asks, what is their claim to make this election at all? "It dates, I believe, from the year 1000 A. D.; the previous custom having been for the Roman clergy to elect. Why, then, in the altered state of affairs, should not the King of Italy relieve the Cardinals of this duty, and revert once more to one or other of the more primitive methods? The elect of a purely Italian body could scarcely continue to call himself the Head of the Catholic Church; and thus the great imposture of the second millennium of the Christian era would vanish by a painless extinction."

IT having been represented that the old wall of Fort St. George are insecure, and unsuited for mounting the heavy guns now in use, the Madras Government recently called upon certain military officers to submit an opinion as to how this may be remedied. Several schemes have now been proposed one of which is to fill in the Fort ditch, and to face the embankment raised on the site with stone, thereby widening the ramparts and bastions, and strengthening the outer wall. Another suggestion is to alter the present plan of the Fort in accordance with the most approved modern notions of military engineering, as the existing plan would be of little or no service either for attack or defence. It has, the Mail says been decided to erect a battery at the south-end of the Fort, which is the least defended portion of the structure, and to mount upon it several Armstrong guns of heavy calibre. The plans and estimates for this have gone into Government for sanction.

MR. JUSTICE JACKSON, of the Calcutta High Court, who was lately on an official tour inspecting the Mofussil Courts, has reported that with some exceptions, his visit was passed unnoticed by the administrative district officers. He names five exceptions and adds that the Magistrates of Dacca, Tipperah, Rajshahye, and the Deputy Commissioner of Sylhet, omitted even the compliment of a visit. "I am far from wishing to imply that the inattention on the part of these officers was purposely discourteous, and a point of private courtesy is one upon which each person judges for himself. But I conceive that a Judge of the High Court of Judicature, visiting a civil station on public duty, is entitled to expect that the chief authorities of the station should wait upon him, and offer their services. I am persuaded that the Lieutenant-Governor would consider this a part of their duty. It may, therefore, if my colleagues agree, be fitly brought in a demi-official manner to the notice of His Honour, in order that gentlemen who are ignorant of their duty in this respect may be therein instructed."

WE learn from the Madras Times that more than one of the prisoners under arrest for the theft at the Calicut Ranee's palace having deposed that the Rajas, named Cortee Anoojan, Coonyi Anoojan and Cherunny Thamboorans, nephews of the Zamorin, who again is the nephew of the Ranee of Calicut, were present when the theft took place, warrants were issued against them, and they were placed under the custody of the police in a house hard by the Ranee's palace. Here they were subjected by the Sub and Deputy Magistrates to an investigation relative to the theft, and a desire having been evinced by the above officials to search the treasury of the eldest Raja, named Cootee Anoojan Thambooran, they were about to undertake the responsibility of doing so, when the Ranee stated that she did not wish to press the case. The complaint has accordingly been withdrawn, so far as the Rajas are concerned. Under these circumstances, the other defendants could not be proceeded against, and so they also were discharged.

AT the last Criminal Sessions of the High Court, Madras, a European, named William Edginton, was put up and tried on a charge of attempting to murder his wife on the high seas, while the vessel in which he and his wife were passengers was nearing the port of Tellicherry. As it appeared in evidence that the man was labouring under a delusion, Mr. Justice Kernan passed the light sentence of one month's imprisonment on him. Edginton having served his time in jail, joined his wife, and appeared quite reconciled to her. After a few days, however, he began again to show fits of jealousy and accused his wife of infidelity, exhibiting also signs of insanity. On Wednesday last, Mrs Edginton found that her husband was carrying a knife about him, and she believed he intended doing her bodily injury. She appeared a few days ago before Mr. Streenevassa Row, at the Town Police, and applied for a warrant on the above grounds, and requested that her husband might be arrested and sent to the Lunatic Asylum and kept under medical observation. His Worship granted the warrant. The parties have, it is said, since become reconciled.

THE Eastern Review states that after the Vienna Exhibition of 1873 the vessel which was conveying back to Japan the articles which had been sent from that country, together with other objects purchased for the Tokio Museum, was wrecked off the Japanese coast, and went down near Amakoura. The inhabitants of that island, who are engaged in the pearl and oyster fisheries, at once set to work to raise the cargo from the bottom of the sea. They are so expert in diving that they have now provided themselves with the apparatus generally used, but though the vessel had gone down in five-and-twenty fathoms of water, they succeeded by the end of two years in bringing to the surface two hundred cases of goods. But the most interesting part of the story is what follows. Some of the goods contained in these cases—principally articles in lacquer, dating from the last century—were brought to Tokio three months ago. Although they had been immersed in the salt water for two years, they were, with the exception of the silver fittings, quite uninjured, while the lacquer articles of recent manufacture were quite spoiled. The layer of lacquer with which they were covered had fallen off, and the wood, left bare, had lost its shape. The Eastern Review says that this is a proof that the modern makers of lacquer resort to spurious imitations, which were unknown, or at all events not practised, in the eighteenth century.

A CORRESPONDENT writes:—"Can you or any of your readers enlighten me as to the reason for their being no shifts amongst the Infantry in the Madras Presidency during the present (1876-77) relief season? It was undertood pretty generally that H. M.'s 45th Sherwood Foresters would go home this year from Bangalore, but it seems they will not, whilst H.M.'s 1-21st Fusiliers, now completing their second year in Rangoon, were expecting to go to Calcutta, instead of which they are to remain where they are another twelve month, thus putting in the whole of their (3 year's) tour of Burma in the one station, and not enjoying the sweets of Thyetmyo or the twin station Tonghoo. Is it true that the reliefs according to the roster are postponed this year on account of savings necessary to cover a lavish expenditure of public money during the recent visit of Royalty to the benighted presidency? It certainly has a very injurious effect on the Army to arrange these shifts of regiments, so that one corps gets all the smooth and the other all the rough. It is rather strange that a regiment, which the inhabitants of Bangalore petitioned to have left amongst them another year, could not be left more than ten months in Madras, but whilst money could be found to shift them from what is called a good station—that is to say, the presidency capital, there is invariably a want of cash when the same corps is got into some out-of-the-way corner. I say that this sort of thing affects the tone and morale of any regiment, nor need any one go beyond the present case for proof."

THE intensely bitter quarrel which has been going on at Calcutta for so many months between the Indian Daily News and the Chairman of the Calcutta Municipality, Sir S. Hogg, who is also Commissioner of Police, reached a climax on Tuesday last. On that day the Indian Daily News, remarking on the result of the election for one of the wards, for which Mr. Wilson, the editor, had secured beforehand a majority of votes, but the official returns for which showed that he was in a minority, used very strong words in explanation of the mystery. For using these words Sir S. Hogg has obtained a summons against Mr. Wilson for defamation. After giving a number of details the following remarks in Mr. Wilson's article occur:—

How comes it then, that the official returns give Mr. Wilson 97 votes, and the rival candidate 109? Those who have been endeavouring to promote Mr. Wilson's return, believe that the return is a dishonest one. It is an awkward statement to make; but it is not without something in support of it. This is not a healthy state of things, and must be looked into. There will act as one of the commissioners a native gentleman, who in honourable competition won his way into the Indian civil service. He was ignominiously turned out of it on a charge of "fudging nukshas" which is C. S. slang for making false returns. Is there any reason why a charge of making false election returns should be passed over without an equal test? There is no mistake about the matter. The electors of No. 7 Ward believe that the return of the votes given in the election of Wednesday last is a false return, and there is no denying that they have some awkward facts in support of the allegation. In India this may be a light offence under such a rule as that of Sir R. Temple. In England, it would be the most serious offence of which a public officer could be guilty. There can be no mistake in the course that should be adopted in this case. A scrutiny of the votes is essential as an act of justice to the native community and in the interests of the right of election. The refusal of a scrutiny will bear an awkward interpretation. The duration of the voting papers to defeat it will not avail, for the counterfoils exist, and the people are willing to testify. It is altogether a pretty case as it stands, and enquiry will reveal more.

EFFORTS are actively in progress in Kattywar with a view to organising an exhibition of agriculture, arts, and manufactures, to be held at Rajkote early in the ensuing year, the objects being "to afford a complete representation of all the products, animal, vegetable, and mineral, of the province of Kattywar to both its inhabitants themselves and to business men from other quarters; to bring into public notice useful native arts and industries hitherto unknown, or but partly known, with a view to their greater encouragement; to encourage the manufacture of articles of use for which the people are now dependent upon a foreign supply, but which can be made in the province itself; and to afford a general stimulus to arts, industries, and commerce by facilitating the exhibition and sale of articles of all descriptions and by providing ready intercourse between producers and consumers generally." The articles and objects exhibited will be divided into five groups, viz:—machinery and implements used in agriculture, carpentry, or manufacture of any kind; agricultural and dairy produce and raw materials; forest and mineral products; manufactures; and fine arts; and each group will be sub-divided into numerous classes, for each of which a prize will be offered. Accommodation will be given to articles which may be sent from other districts for exhibition or sale, but the prizes will be open to articles from all parts of Kattywar only. The affair is under the patronage of Mr. J. B. Peile, Political Agent in Kattywar, and of the various native princes in the province, including the Nawab of Joonaghur, the Jam of Nowanugger, the Thakore of Bhownugger, and the Raj Saheb of Drangadra. Local committees have been formed in the principal talookas for the purpose of raising subscriptions, and collecting articles for exhibition; and a central executive committee has been appointed to act in Rajkote. The exhibition will probably be opened in January, and will remain open something less than two months. The committee will be prepared to receive articles for exhibition by the 1st of November. Communications respecting the exhibition should be addressed to Messrs. M. A. Turkhad and Uttaram N. Mehtaji, Rajkote, who act as honorary secretaries to the central committee.

RAJKOTE, 19TH SEPT.

"Peace has its victories, no less renown'd than war."

It is indeed very gratifying to behold that the province of Kattywar, which was backward in every respect a few decades ago, is now trying to keep pace with the most enlightened parts of this vast and heterogeneous country. Who could have expected that the land where instances of feuds and bloodshed were so common, where thoroughfares were rendered unsafe by cut-throats and plunderers whose code of ethics consisted of the good old rule—

"That they should take who have the power,
And they should keep, who can!"

where order and justice were not well known, and where, in short, anarchy ruled supreme?—that such a land should boast of a good police, courts of justice, a college for the scions of the nobility, high schools, tank roads, telegraphs et hoc genus omne? One can easily perceive at a glance what rapid strides the province is making in the path of reform in general. Education has not only made its way to the upper ten but has permeated the masses of society. The chiefs, whose cosmos used to be the space enclosed within the four walls of their Zenana, have by the influence of good society contracted a taste for travelling and, in the possible understanding, their response was not discouraging. A sum of about Rs. 7,000 has been subscribed, and it is hoped some more will be forthcoming. Joonaghur deserves the highest credit for leading the van. No assistance has yet been vouchsafed from the Gaekwar, who owns by no means a small territory in the Peninsula of Kattywar. But the Nawab of Junagadh and Bhownugger are long the wisdom and necessity of adequately representing the Gaekwar's dominions at an exhibition like the present. Kattywar pays tribute to the ruler of Baroda, who was up to a very recent period acknowledged to be the political head of the whole province. Looking at the utility of the project the enlightened minister of Baroda must be the last man to withhold his support both moral and material. Many influential men, Europeans and natives, have consented to stand as patrons and vice-patrons of the proposed Exhibition, and there is reason to suppose that the exhibition will be a success. For it is plain that few Chiefs from Kattywar will be invited at Delhi, and if any be asked to go at all it will probably be the four first Class Chiefs and no others. To the rest, says Dame Rumour, the Political Agent will announce the mile of Imperatrix in a Durbar to be held here in January next. In that case there will be a large gathering of people and Talookdars which will give an additional lustre to the Exhibition.

WHARDARPOOR.

WHARDARPOOR, 20TH SEPT.

WHERE is Whardarpoor? about two hundred and fifty miles from Poona, and not a thousand miles from Belgaum. Now, I dare say you know all about it. A pretty, yes decidedly pretty, little station, with a climate as like that of England as it is possible for a place out of the hills to have—better, so some say, than that of most parts of the "old countrie;" but "England, with all thy faults, I love thee still." Putting England out of the question, I don't think you could be in a nicer Indian station; no hot weather, nor yet any cold season, we rejoice in a happy medium, all the year round. We have our Gymkhana, our badminton, and lawn-tennis courts, shooting, both large and small, within convenient distance, and, putting two and two together, one might remark with the tourist, "if you want to spend a 'appy day, go to Whardarpoor."

We have our disadvantages, as a matter of course; being off the line of rail, is one, and the fact of our community being composed of districtwallas, viz., Revenue Survey men, Irrigation gentlemen, and men employed under the Collector, which necessitates the greater part of the year being spent "out," is the other evil. But when the rains set in, and every one rushes out of the districts we have a pretty considerable gathering. Let those who want a pleasant outing come to Whardarpoor. ECHO.

BARODA, 20TH SEPT.

WE have been having smart showers of rain for the past two days, and the atmosphere is delightfully cool and enjoyable. The crops, with the exception of those that are on elevated ground, require no more rain.

The school under Mr. A. C. J. Rohling is progressing remarkably and the little folks have, I see, taken a great liking to their tutor. In fact they rejoice to attend school, and the zeal and attention which Mr. and Miss Rohling bestow upon their pupils will, I hope, be recognised by the authorities.

BHOSAWUL, 21ST SEPT.

MR. THOMAS ALLUMBY has been appointed to assist Mr. E. G. Brookes at this railway station, vice Mr. J. Brand, who has lately been transferred to Nandgaum.

At a special general meeting of the subscribers to the Native General Library, Bhosawul, held on the 17th instant, it was proposed that Baboo Kirtee Chunder, chairman of the managing committee, be appointed to frame new rules and regulations which are absolutely necessary for the use of the library, and that the members of the managing committee should assist the Baboo in his carrying out the proposal. The rules thus framed should be brought for confirmation before the third annual meeting of the Library, which is to be held on the last Sunday of October next. After a short discussion on several subjects in connection with that institution the meeting separated with vote of thanks to Rao Sahib Anuputrao Jairam, who presided.

A policeman, Shaik Badul, met with his death accidentally the night before last. He was working with an up goods train in the station yard and was knocked down by a buffer of the railway waggon while he was coupling the train. His death was instantaneous. An inquest was held early on the following morning on the body of the deceased by the Railway Police, and "accidental death" was the verdict. The Musculmans think it an auspicious event when a follower of Islam meets with death during the month of Ramzan.

A dinner was given on the night of Saturday last by the members of the Railway Volunteer Rifle Corps to Lieutenant T. McMahon, who left for the Concan. There were about five and twenty gentlemen at the table. Mr. Charles Vining, of the Traffic Superintendent's establishment, won the applause of the company by his speeches and good songs which he accompanied with a guitar. Mr. G. James Yeend, the successor of Mr. McMahon from Khundwa, also delighted the company by several ballads. Captain F. A. Maurice occupied the chair on the occasion, and spoke well on the formation of the Railway Volunteer Rifle Corps.

The work of constructing the public road between the railway station of Sowda and Faizpore is carried out with great zeal under the supervision of Lieutenant S. A. E. Hickson, R.E., the Assistant Executive Engineer. Many cultivators, who have lost their crops this year, owing to the insufficient fall of rain, have joined the field of Lieutenant Hickson. It is to be hoped that Government may issue fresh injunctions to commence with work of similar kind throughout the district of Khandeish in order to support the poor subjects of Her Imperial Majesty the Empress of India.

The Rev. Mr. Siddoba Bapoojee, missionary of the Free Church Mission at Akola, has arrived here. He is collecting the native boys for his Mission School established at this station lately. Mr. Yeshwantrao Narayen, school-master, left for Bombay last week to join the Rev. Mr. J. G. Dsimler, of the S. P. G. Mission. Mr. Vishnoo Runganath Burday, from West Berar, succeeded Mr. Yeshwantrao.

The camp of the Collector and Magistrate Mr. H. Woodward, C.S., of this division has been at Rangaum, where he holds his Court at present. The report received from the revenue officers shows that the state of the crops is not better throughout the division of Bhoesawul.

BOMBAY.

THE VEHAR LAKE.—The height of water in the Vehar Lake, for the week ending Saturday, 16th September, was 59 feet; total rainfall up to date 57 inches 96 cents. In the corresponding week last year, it was 59 feet 2 tenths; total rainfall up to date 67 inches 28 cents.

ST. PETER'S MAZAGON.—The Lord Bishop will celebrate Holy Communion at St. Peter's Church, Mazagon, tomorrow morning at 7-30 o'clock, and preach there at the forenoon service, 11 o'clock. His Lordship's Domestic Chaplain, Rev. B. Dalley, will preach at the same Church in the evening, 6 o'clock.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—Yesterday, at the Girgaum Police Court, four cart-drivers were fined by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, for torturing their bullocks, two Rs. 2 each and two Rs. 3 each. One of the defendants was charged at the instance of Mr. Nutty, an agent to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and the others at the instance of native police constables.

CONSPIRACY AND PERJURY.—Yesterday, at the Fort Police Court, before Mr. C. P. Cooper, the case of Purshotum Khetsey versus Lalljee Jaddowjee and eight other respectable Hindoos of the Bunia caste for conspiracy and giving false evidence in a judicial proceeding, was called on for hearing. Mr. Macfarlane appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Chalk for the defence. Before proceeding with the case a discussion ensued regarding the charges preferred by complainants especially as to the charge of conspiracy. It was held by the Court that evidence of actual premeditation was necessary to support the charge of conspiracy which the information laid by the complainant did not clearly set forward. Thereupon the counsel for the prosecution desired to amend the information as to that point, and consequently the case was postponed for hearing to the 5th proximo.

HIGHWAY ROBBERS.—Yesterday, at the Fort Police Court, three noted characters, named Kumal Ameer, Mahadoo Heerjee, and Shaik Ahmed Mahomed were convicted by Mr. Nana Morojee of two separate charges, one of theft and the other of assaulting a woman, named Rambai, and were each sentenced to an aggregate term of ten months' imprisonment with hard labour in the House of Correction. The circumstances of the case against the above three prisoners are briefly these. It appears the three prisoners on the night previous had combined together to waylay people passing through a gully at Rungaree Mohla. The first man they waylaid was Moorar Vella, a shoemaker, whom, after assaulting him, they robbed of Rs. 10 which he had in his jacket pocket. The next party was a woman, named Rambai, but while they were assaulting and demanding money of her they were arrested by the police.

THE PARSEE ELPHINSTONE DRAMATIC CLUB.—The members of this club give a performance to-night, at their new theatre, when a monster, though selected, programme will be presented, consisting of the best scenes from some of their most successful plays, to be followed by gymnastic feats, songs, dances, &c. The performance is given preparatory to the company's going on a short trip to Calcutta. Judging from the uniform success which has attended the performances of the club in Bombay, and the crowded houses which, even in the rainy season, have been attracted to witness them, there is reason to believe that they would meet with a warm reception in the City of Palaces. This Parsee company has, among the several native dramatic companies here, been able to win for itself, and to maintain for some years past, the first rank; and the general opinion is that they have deserved it. The management has been known to spare no trouble or expense to render their performances the most acceptable to the native play-going public.

THE ASSISTANT SESSION JUDGE OF POONA.—We understand that no one is likely to be appointed Assistant Session Judge of Poona during the absence of Mr. Baker in Khandeish. It is rumoured that the office of the Assistant Judge of Poona is to be abolished; but we cannot say how far this rumour is true. It is evident that there is not much work for an Assistant Judge in Poona, as recently several civil suits were transferred from the first class Subordinate Judge's Court to that judicial officer for disposal.—Poona Observer.

PUBLIC SERVICE will be held at the following places during the coming week:—

Falkland Road Hall, Byculla; No 2, Dean Lane, Fort; and at Mazagon, on Sunday, 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.; Monday, 7-30 p.m.; Thursday, 7-30 p.m.—All persons are cordially invited.

SERVICE OF SONG AND FREE TEA AT MAZAGON.

ON Thursday evening a large gathering of Christians of all denomination, besides some few Hindoo and Mahomedan converts, &c., assembled at the Dockyard Road Hall, better known as the Old P. and O. Club, situated in the corner of Gunpowder Road at the top of Dockyard Road Hill, now in the occupation of the Zenana Mission, in response to an invitation to a service of song and free tea, issued by Dr. W. P. Partridge in the form of printed circulars, which were widely distributed throughout the city previous to the occasion.

The meeting was held on the ground floor of the commodious building at the hour of 7 P.M. Upwards of three hundred persons assembled when tea was announced and the special choir for the occasion composed of eight ladies and eight gentlemen with an harmonium accompaniment, presided over by Miss. Malloch, of the Zenana Mission, sung the grace.

The good things, such as cakes of all descriptions, &c., and tea were then liberally distributed to the large assembly. Several of the members present had formerly belonged to the congregation of St. Peter's Church, Mazagon, but since the distinction caused by the Cowley Fathers, the present incumbents of that Church, who have introduced schismatical dogmas in imitation of the Roman Catholic form of worship and in opposition to the practices used in the Church of England, they have formed themselves into a body of unsectarians, and have held religious services on the evenings Tuesdays and Fridays of every week and on the Sabbath days, both morning and evening, and have had for their pastors several distinguished and devout men such as General Gell, General Shayre, Revd. Mr. Dalgleish and occasionally ministers of the Church Missionary Society have also administered to their spiritual wants, and at present Dr. W. P. Partridge and the Revd. Mr. Deimler, of the Church Missionary Society, are now endeavouring to promote the work they have undertaken.

After tea, which continued for an hour and a quarter, and all heartily partaken of the good things that had been provided for them, Dr. Partridge, who presided and conducted the meeting throughout, addressed the large assembly (which up to that time had increased to a number not far short of four hundred and fifty souls) in a brief and impressive manner. The service of song was then proceeded with first by the choir and then the whole congregation singing the 56th Hymn "Lord, I hear of showers of blessing," &c., a selection from the sacred songs and solos sung by Messrs. Sankey and Bliss, after which Dr. Partridge offered a short prayer. Then followed a discourse commenting on the Hymn which was about to follow, which was the 106th Hymn, a solo by the choir and the whole congregation in full which is a selection from the same authors, sung by one of the gentlemen members of the choir singly, and the chorus, "For you I am praying, I am praying for you," joined by the full choir. Other selections from the same authors were sung and discourses by Dr. Partridge intervened among the selections. The one sung by Miss Malloch, who presided at the harmonium, the 83rd Hymn, "There were ninety and nine that safely lay," was well and most effectively performed. At the conclusion the choir sung the 118 Hymn of Messrs. Sankey and Bliss's sacred songs and solos, "This loving a Saviour stands patiently," and a short prayer of thanksgiving offered by Dr. Partridge and the general benediction brought the meeting to a successful termination.

MR. WILLIAM MOYLAN'S CASE.

CHARGE OF DEFAMATION AGAINST THE CHAIRMAN OF THE FORT PRESS COMPANY.

YESTERDAY at the fourth Criminal Sessions of the High Court, Rustomjee Pestonjee Billimoria, chairman of the Fort Press Company, was placed on his trial, before Sir Charles Sargent and a Special Jury, on a charge of defamation preferred against him by Mr William Moylan, Government Inspector of Steam Boilers and Prime Movers in Bombay. The charge was made in respect of what the defendant was alleged to have stated at a meeting of shareholders of the Fort Press Company. The Advocate General and Mr. Pigot instructed by Messrs. Lynch and Tobin, appeared for the prosecution; and Mr. Purcell, instructed by Messrs Crawford and Bowey, appeared for the defence. Great interest was manifested in the proceedings; and the Court was crowded during the day by persons of all classes. The following gentlemen were called upon the

The Advocate General, in opening the case, said—The prosecutor in this case, Mr. William Moylan, is an Inspector of Boilers and Prime Movers under the Boiler Inspection Act of 1873. Mr. Moylan is a thoroughly educated mechanical engineer, has been several years in this country practising his profession, and was appointed, in the first instance Inspector of Boilers and Prime Movers under the Bombay Boilers Inspection Act 1869. That Act continued in operation until it was repealed by the Act of 1873, and during the whole time it was in operation, Mr. Moylan continued to hold the office of Inspector, and performed his duties to the satisfaction of Government, by whom he was appointed, and who are his immediate superiors; in fact, his conduct as Inspector under that Act was so satisfactory that he was at once appointed Inspector under the new Act of 1873 when it came into operation. The imputation which was made by the defendant, and regarding which there will be no doubt, was simply in effect this,—that Mr. Moylan, in his capacity as Government Inspector under this Act, did so far forget himself, and did commit so gross a violation of his duty as Inspector, as to take a bribe of Rs. 500. Upon the serious nature of such an imputation, I need not dwell for a moment; it is simply sufficient for me to say that if the charge were true, and if Mr. Moylan did take that bribe, it would at once show that he is a person who ought no longer to be continued in his office of Inspector, and would justify the Government in at once dismissing him from that office. If the charge was untrue, perhaps no grosser or more cruel imputation could have been made on the character of a man; and that it was untrue, I think we shall demonstrate to your satisfaction. That it was absolutely and entirely false Mr. Moylan will himself most emphatically tell you; and although the imputation was untrue, I think you will agree with me that it was of such a cruel and base nature as to be, although untrue, calculated almost irretrievably to ruin Mr. Moylan's character in the estimation of his superiors. Fortunately, Mr. Moylan's character stood so high with Government and with his immediate superiors that this has not happened, but in my opinion that does not in any way lessen the gross character of the imputation made. As I say, there is no doubt that the imputation was made in the words and to the effect stated in the charge, viz:—that a payment of Rs. 500 was made for the benefit of the company to a person (thereby meaning of course Mr. Moylan himself.) The circumstances under which that statement was made may be very shortly and simply laid before you. The defendant, Mr. Rustomjee Pestonjee Billimoria, is the chairman of one of the numerous press companies in Bombay, called the Fort Press Company. At a meeting of the directors and shareholders of that company, held on the 29th of April last, a question arose with reference to an item of Rs. 500 for which no voucher was produced, and which had been very properly declined to be passed by the auditor of the company. A discussion took place with reference to this item, and it was at that meeting that the defendant, in his capacity as chairman of the company, stated the words that I have just read to you, and which contain in short the imputation that Mr. Moylan had taken a bribe of Rs. 500 in his character of Government Inspector. As I have already told you Mr. Moylan will most emphatically state that that imputation is false, but there is not the slightest foundation for any such allegation. In the Police Court, this charge was attempted to be supported by Mr. Cowasjee Nusserwanjee, the secretary of the company, who told the magistrate that on a certain day in September,—no one day particularly was fixed, but it was stated between the 25th, 29th, or 30th of September last, and the witness said it might have been the 26th—he went with the defendant, taking with them Rs 500, to Mr. Moylan's house at Mazagon; that the defendant went into Mr. Moylan's house, taking the Rs. 500 with him; and that upon his return he told the witness Cowasjee, that Mr. Moylan had taken those Rs. 500. The statement is one which of course must call for its foundation, upon the supposition that at that time Mr. Moylan, in his capacity as Government Inspector, was inspecting the machinery of the company, and that the Rs. 500 were paid as a bribe to him to improperly pass over defects in that machinery; and I think we shall demonstrate to you that the statement was absolutely and entirely false for this one simple reason, which I think we shall completely prove, that although some fortnight or three weeks prior to that date, and in the early part of the month of September, Mr. Moylan had, in his capacity of Inspector, inspected the machinery of this company at Colaba, yet the defects which he discovered and directed to be remedied had been remedied, and the improvements had been passed by him on the 21st or 22nd of the month. That being so, of course the whole foundation of this story of the payment to Mr. Moylan of a bribe of Rs. 500 on either one of the last three days in September falls necessarily to the ground, because when there remained nothing further to be done and nothing further to be passed, there was of course no reason whatever for the bribe of Mr. Moylan at present, or rather giving him a bribe, of Rs. 500. That simple fact, which I think we shall prove to your satisfaction, at once, by itself, almost conclusively shows that the story is false. Mr. Moylan himself will be called, and will tell you that that statement was absolutely false, and that the defendant never went to his house after the 21st of September. There is a fact in the case, which will probably be attempted to be converted into a foundation for this allegation of the payment of Rs. 500, viz:—that in the month of September, Mr. Moylan did undoubtedly inspect these boilers, notice being given on the 9th, and the 16th, being the day fixed for the inspection, and further, there is no doubt whatever that there was an attempt, and a fruitless attempt, made by the Bombay Steam Navigation Company connected with the Fort Press Company, to bribe Mr. Moylan, on the 16th of September, when a sum of Rs. 300 was offered to him. Mr. Moylan of course very properly refused to receive that sum, and he wrote a letter to the defendant telling him that according to the regulations by which he was appointed Inspector under the Act of 1873 he was prevented from taking any remuneration for his services. That letter will be produced, and there is no doubt whatever that that bribe of Rs. 300 was offered to Mr. Moylan, and was very properly refused by him. You (the Jury) will probably be yourselves able to judge in the course of the case whether the offering of bribe will be attempted to be converted by the defence into a foundation for what is said to be the subsequent offer of Rs. 500. That is the nature of the case, and those I think are the short facts which it is necessary for me to state to you. There is one other matter which, before sitting down, I ought to mention, as I think it will have, in considering the evidence, an important bearing on the case, and that is, that Mr. Moylan under the first Boilers Inspection Act of 1869, under which Mr. Moylan was first appointed Inspector, he was allowed to practice his profession in addition to his office of Inspector, but under the bye-laws of the second Act of 1873, which came into operation in July 1874. Mr. Moylan was prevented from practising his profession in addition to his Inspector's duties. He received a salary of Rs. 700 a month, and was prevented by the bye-laws from private practise of his profession. While the former Act was in operation, he had very considerable practice in Bombay as a mechanical engineer, and was advised to attend to private mill companies, and of course while so practising his profession, he from time to time received various sums of money as remuneration for his services. Of course, although he was then Inspector under the Act, yet inasmuch as he was practically at liberty to practice privately, no possible imputation could be cast upon Mr. Moylan for so doing, no reflection upon his conduct in taking fees for private practise. It is nothing more than is ordinarily done, many gentlemen who hold Government appointments being allowed at the same time to practise their profession. There is no further possible imputation could be cast upon Mr. Moylan for practising his profession and holding his office under those circumstances than could be cast upon myself, or any other barrister who has the honour to hold a Government appointment, for holding a brief for any private person. And, of course, all was done with the perfect knowledge of his superiors, who were of course practically aware that under the Act Mr. Moylan had a right to practise his profession and did practise it. I just mention this matter, because it is possible that in the course of the case questions may be asked Mr. Moylan and some imputation may be attempted to be cast upon him because, as Inspector under the Act of 1869, he did practise his profession, and did receive remuneration for his services, as a mechanical engineer. As I say, no imputation can be cast upon him for anything that he did in that way prior to 1874, when the bye-laws of the new Act prevented his practising his profession, and any money that was received by him for services rendered he received with the knowledge of Government, and he had a perfect right so to receive.

Evidence was then led for the prosecution. Messrs. Oldfield, Shapoorjee Jeewajee, Sorabjee Nowrojee Wadia and Munoherjee Nowrojee Banajee were called, but not one of them answered to his name.

Mr. Pigot—It is quite plain the witnesses supposed my learned friend's opening would be longer than it has been. They seem to be unanimously late.

A short delay occurred, when it was suggested that the witnesses should be called on their subpœnas.

Mr. Sorabjee Nowrojee Wadia meanwhile appeared He said—I am employed in the office of Messrs. Stewart Latham and Co., and am a shareholder of the Fort Press Company remark that the fee was a very generous one?—No.

Is it not a fact that for many years you have been receiving large sums of money in the shape of fees?—No.

Well, I'll give some instances. You know Rogers and Co., the chemists?—Yes.

Do you remember making a claim of Rs. 85 upon them for fees?—Yes, the claim was for Rs. 95.

Mr. Purcell here read a long correspondence between Mr. Moylan and Mr. D'Emden, of Messrs. Rogers and Co., who acted for Mr. Rogers who had gone home.

You observe that, in the letter of 16th June, you are said to have received a sum of Rs. 595, and are required to give an explanation why you received it? Yes.

Now, you perceive that, in your reply, you don't answer the enquiry as to the Rs. 595. Why did you not answer the enquiry?—It might not have occurred to me at the time.

Mr. Purcell read another letter from Mr. D'Emden.

You see there is another demand for an explanation as to the Rs. 595, and rather an unpleasant commentary as to the character of your letters being incorrect?—Yes.

Instead of sending your clerk to give an explanation why did you not put your explanation in writing as to the receipt of the Rs. 595?—It might not have occurred to me at the time. It was a fair transaction.

There was no answer to their demand for an explanation, and the money has not been paid?—It is not paid to this moment.

Did you let the matter rest until you wrote your letter of 20th February 1875?—Yes.

Again on the 24th February 1875, Rogers and Co. applied for a detailed explanation as to the Rs. 595?—Yes.

And you again let the matter rest until after you made this charge against Billimoria?—The detailed explanation was given on 10th July 1876. It was simply an oversight.

Will you tell me, why did you leave the explanation overdue for eighteen months?—It was simply by an oversight that the letter was not sent until after the information in this case was laid. It would have remained unanswered until now had not the auditor reminded me of it.

And there was a reply from Rogers and Co. on the 11th July 1876 to your last letter?—Yes.

Don't you know very well that the Rs. 500 for the boiler was something distinct from the Rs. 595?—It was for the boiler.

Do you swear that, apart from the Rs. 595, you were not paid separately for the boiler?—I do swear.

And you know that Mr. Arbuthnot has allowed the whole matter to stand over until Mr. Rogers's return to Bombay?—Yes.

And that Mr. Rogers's statement differs from yours?—Yes, in the correspondence.

Do you deny that Mr. Rogers has given you a gratuity of Rs. 500 for not interfering with his machinery and establishment?—This is the first time I heard of it.

Among the boilers and engines you inspected were those of the Bombay Press Company?—Yes, I inspected them last year.

Then last month of the company were Brice, Brown and Co?—Yes.

Do you remember telling them that one of their boilers would have to be condemned?—If I did it must be in writing.

Did you tell Mr. Alexander Brice that one of the boilers would have to be condemned? If I did, it must be in writing.

Do you remember Mr. Brice expostulating with you that the company had been only eight years at work, and that the boilers could not be worn out? I don't remember.

Do you know that, after expostulating with you, Mr. Brice communicated with the directors?—No. But I was asked to attend a meeting of the directors, at which Mr. Dhurmsey Poonjabhoy was Chairman.

Was it not proposed to you that you should be appointed engineer to the company at Rs. 300 a month?—No. I was asked to become supervising engineer, but nothing was said as to Rs. 300 a month.

You were appointed supervising engineer and received Rs. 100 a month?—Yes.

And Mr. Porret was put under you on Rs. 200 a month, and you received Rs. 100 a month?—Yes.

Did you not take Mr. Porret to the chairman and ask him to give him Rs. 200 a month out of the Rs. 300 allotted to you?—No. The Rs. 100 I received was not part of Mr. Porret's salary.

Is it not a fact that you threatened to condemn a boiler before being appointed supervising engineer?—I never heard of it before. It is not the fact.

Is it not the fact that, since your appointment, the company heard nothing more of your condemning the boiler?—It is not the fact.

Is it not the fact that your appointment was only nominal, and that you hardly went near the Press?—I did go there and give assistance.

If Mr. Brice swears that you hardly went near the place or gave any assistance, would it be true or not?—It would not be true.

Is it not the fact that Porret was an inexperienced young man, and that the company had to dispense with his services?—The company dispensed with his services in four months.

Was he a relation of yours?—No.

The company dismissed him, because he was incompetent?—They thought him incompetent and dismissed him.
